

SUSPENSION OF POLICIES

The policies of the Wakefield School Board are subject to suspension only upon a majority vote of the entire board membership at a meeting for which the proposed suspension has been described in writing or upon a unanimous vote of the entire board membership when no such written notice has been given.

Those board policies which pertain to the internal operations of the board are subject to suspension only upon a two-thirds vote of all members of the board at a meeting for which the proposed suspension has been described in writing or upon a unanimous vote of the entire board membership when no such written notice has been given.
